Fees for Medico-Legal Work

Fees for Medico-Legal reports: The hourly rate for preparing medico-legal reports is £200 per hour. Fees are charged strictly on a pro-rata basis. Interviews with patients are generally for 2 hours. The typical period of reading and abstracting material from supplied documentation is 3-4 hours, and after this, 2-3 hours is spent in preparing and redrafting the final report. An average report would be about 8 hours of work, incurring a fee of £1600. Shorter or longer pieces of work are charged accordingly.

Cancellation Fee for Medico-Legal Assessments: The fee charged for a patient not attending with less than 24 hours assessment is for the full 2 hours of the planned interview time. Where it is possible to reschedule other clinical work to fill this time then the fee is reduced proportionately.

Travelling Time: £100 per hour plus First Class rail fare on public transport and, if necessary, local taxi fares.

Attendance fee for Conference with Counsel: £200 per hour of attendance. In addition travel time as above, and preparation time. Minor queries/correspondence incur no charge.

Fees for Attending Court: £1500 per day including preparation for giving evidence and travelling time.

£750 per half day plus preparation time and travelling time.
